PEP HYBRID PROGRAM

A Flexible Christian Education for Florida Homeschool Families

Legacy Christian Academy is pleased to offer educational services for families participating in Florida's Personalized Education Program (PEP). Our hybrid program allows parents to remain the primary educators while partnering with experienced Christian educators for part-time, in-person instruction. Students receive engaging classroom instruction in a Christ-centered environment while maintaining the flexibility that makes home education unique.

WHAT IS PEP?

Florida's Personalized Education Program (PEP) is an education savings account (ESA) scholarship designed for students whose parents direct their education.

PEP students are not enrolled as full-time private school students. Instead, parents remain responsible for their child's educational program while utilizing approved educational services and providers.

HOW LEGACY CHRISTIAN ACADEMY CAN HELP

Our PEP Hybrid Program may include:

- ✓ Small group classroom instruction
- ✓ Reading and Mathematics support
- ✓ Science and Social Studies enrichment
- ✓ Biblical instruction and character development
- ✓ Hands-on learning experiences
- ✓ Educational field trips and special events
- ✓ Progress monitoring and academic feedback for parents

Families have the flexibility to continue learning at home while benefiting from structured classroom experiences throughout the week.

PARENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Because students remain enrolled in the PEP scholarship program, parents continue to direct their child's education and are responsible for meeting all PEP requirements established by their scholarship funding organization, including maintaining a Student Learning Plan and completing the required annual assessment.

INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE?

We would love to help you determine whether our PEP Hybrid Program is the right fit for your family. Contact us to schedule a visit, meet our educators, and learn more about our educational services.

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR?

This program is an excellent fit for families who:

- Homeschool but would like classroom support
- Want their child to learn alongside peers
- Desire Christian instruction and a Biblical worldview
- Prefer a flexible educational schedule
- Want experienced teachers to partner in their child's education

DISCLAIMER

Legacy Christian Academy provides educational services for families participating in Florida's Personalized Education Program (PEP). Students enrolled through PEP remain home education students, and parents are the primary educators responsible for directing their child's education and ensuring compliance with all scholarship and home education requirements established by the applicable Scholarship Funding Organization and the State of Florida. Participation in Legacy Christian Academy's hybrid program does not constitute enrollment as a full-time private school student.
