Students with Disabilities

Legacy Christian Academy welcomes families seeking a Christ-centered education for their children. Please note that, in accordance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), a parentally placed private school student with a disability does not have an individual right to receive some or all of the special education and related services that would be available if the student were enrolled in a public school.

Families are encouraged to work with their local public school district regarding the evaluation process and any special education services that may be available through the district.
